

Toast & Jam

So, Mark and Mike were talking one day... " Hey Mike, we should do an acoustic show – like, unplugged versions of our THIS END UP tunes, and some other cool tunes from the 70's, 80's, and 90's and maybe throw in some comedy tunes..." "A brilliant plan, Mark. Then we can play some smaller places, do the whole audience participation/sing -along/ request thing. And here's an idea for our name: How about TOAST & JAM? Get it? We toast.. and then we jam! www.toastandjam.ca

Brad & Doug

Together at last! Brad from Molly Bloom's Band and legendary singer/guitarist Doug Varty team up to bring you some sweet, sweet singing and playing. With a combined song list of 1000 popular songs, they'll be sure to play your favourite requests.

Jason Mercer

A refreshing singer/songwriter Jason's live show is an intimate experience with the audience, whether he is singing one of his original songs or a cover of influential artists such as John Mayer, Goo Goo Dolls... etc. His bare and honest performance captures the listener's attention! www.myspace.com/jasonmercermusic

Ron Seaward

How about being entertained by sun-kissed solo acoustic mastery from one of the best? Sound Exotic???...well Ron has been performing at GT's Portside for so long and yet he keeps getting younger! Come and see what people can't wait for each summer!

Michael Ray Band

Michael is a versatile musician and entertainer who plays a wide variety of music along with his band. Classic rock, blues, country, hits of today and beach favourites will keep you singing and dancing along.

Whiskey Sinners

Formerly known as Gaelforce, this Celtic band gets the crowd moving. Influenced by the Pogues, Flogging Molly, The Dubliners and Spirit of the West.

Shivers

Geoff Masse as a duo! Together with his bass player! Geoff has been a musician for over two decades, as a guitar player, singer, and song writer. As a singer, Geoff has no limits. His aggression on stage stands up to a lot of the vocalists from the past to the present, such as, Paul Rogers (Bad Company), Ted Nugent, Bon Scott (AC/DC), Don Barnes (38 Special) and Colin James.

Bill Savage

An accomplished singer/songwriter from London, Ontario. Savage's accomplishments include indie recording contract with turmic records and IAC music top pick for his original Downtown Girlfriend. Having quite the impressive collection of originals and cover songs under his belt, he is not only talented but versatile. His enthusiasm for music can be seen clearly at the venue's the band appears at. He's always getting the audience involved with his vocals and stage presence, working with his fellow band.

Doug Varty Duo

When legendary singer/guitarist Doug Varty wants to get close to the audience, the best way is with an acoustic guitar and a list of great tunes. You won't want to miss Doug and his musical guest as they make their way through all your favourite requests.

Brown & Ratelle

Stanley Brown and Jay Ratelle have been writing, recording, and performing together for the last 7 years. Having started out together playing electric blues, they soon found common interest in the love of acoustic music in many diverse genres. This eventually led to the formation of the acoustic duo. But don't relax, things still get kickin' as they continue to lay it down in the Brown & Ratelle Blues Band.

The Fat Willies

The Fat Willies return for another run at GT's on the Beach with their mix of acoustic based rock, country, folk and just about every other genre you can think of. Always a great show to bring the kids to enjoy the sun, sand and some great music.

Geoff Masse Band

Geoff Masse as a TRIO! Together with his bass player and drums! Geoff has been a musician for over two decades, as a guitar player, singer, and song writer. As a singer, Geoff has no limits. His aggression on stage stands up to a lot of the vocalists from the past to the present, such as, Paul Rogers (Bad Company), Ted Nugent, Bon Scott (AC/DC), Don Barnes (38 Special) and Colin James.

Highman & Carbuncle

Highman & Carbuncle are an acoustic duo performing in southern Ontario. Influenced by Classic Rock, 80's Pop, Roots Music, Bluegrass, Folk, Blues and Rockabilly! Just a couple easy going dudes rockin' out at your local pub making people smile...

Port Authority Band

Members of the Port Authority Band got together after years of being involved in other musical projects. The combination of the members' various styles and influences has allowed the band to bring old and new rock and jazz/acoustic and rock together to create their own sound. Audiences have enjoyed the wide variety of music and keep coming out to dance and party with the band!

Doug Varty Trio

Led by legendary vocalist/guitarist Doug Varty, this trio plays everything from Johnny Cash to AC/DC, with side trips to Bob Dylan, Steve Miller, Motown and just about anything else the audience wants to hear. Blues and funk are their specialty, but not the only thing you'll hear this band play. Give them your requests and see what happens!

Nathan Ouellette Band

A power trio fronted by vocalist, guitarist Nathan Ouellette. Guaranteed to get the crowd motivated with a wide range of cover material from Green Day to the Rolling Stones. Crowd requests welcome!

Spinal Cracker

Stryde